

These are the benefits

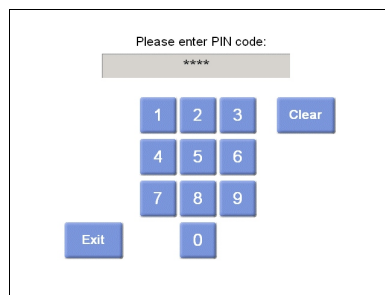

- Allows users to deposit cash without presence of administrative staff
- High degree of user self-service
- Easy to use

Educational institutions and libraries using a SafeCom Pay solution to offer fee-based printing and copying may wish to deploy SafeCom Money Loaders. The SafeCom Money Loader allow users to deposit cash money to their SafeCom account outside normal working hours and without the presence of administrative staff.

How does it work

Users walks to the closest SafeCom Money Loader and identifies themselves. After login users can deposit notes and coins. At logout users are asked if a receipt should be printed. The receipt shows the balance, the deposited amount and the new balance.

SafeCom Money Loader is a steel cabinet (safe) equipped with color touch-screen, receipt printer, a note acceptor and a coin acceptor. The deposited amount is transferred (encrypted) to the user's account on the SafeCom G2 server without delay. Users can also revalue their account via the Internet using SafeCom ePay.
